PLANS SUNDAY CONCERTS

Wagoner's Orchestra May Play in Coliseum if Supported.

A series of Sunday afternoon concerts by the Wagoner orchestra in the Coliseum may be given if the movement is given the proper support. The orchestra has been enlarged to eighteen pieces and is ready to give some concerts if they can be arranged. Under the direction of A. P. Wagoner the orchestra has been working diligently for several weeks and the director believes that the organization is the best that the city ever had. The orchestra

Coliseum behind closed doors.

ALFRED BADA MAY NOT BE PROSECUTED

It is Improbable That Action Will be Taken Because of Expense
Which Would be Attached.

LIKELY OUT OF CINCINNATI

It is very probable that Alfred
Bada, the fireworks man who got $49.50 out of Rushville under false
pretenses, will not be prosecuted because of the expense attached. When
the Cincinnati authorities were asked
to apprehend Bada, they replied that the warrant for his arrest would have to be filed here. The prosecuting
attorney was consulted. He said it would be necessary for the warrant
to be filed in Cincinnati because the
alleged crime was committed there.

It is not very likely, however, that Bada is still in Cincinnati. It is the opinion here that he has returned to his home in Pennsylvania. In that event, it would be necessary to get
requisition papers from the governor of Ohio for his return and the promoters of the Fourth of July
event here would have to stand all expenses. It would necessary to pay the expense of a special agent to
bring him back to Ohio.

Bada succeeded in talking a Cincinnati firm, which was to stand
good for the fireworks, out of $49.50
and he has not been heard of since.

EMSWELLER GETS BITNER ROAD JOB

the contract for building the Bitner road in Center township this afternoon by the county commissioners.

very, of Waldron. Miller bid $23,900

just $95 lower than Avery. The estimate on the road was $24,000. It is almost three miles in length.

The commissioners late yesterday
awarded the contract for supplies
for the poor farm to the following firms: meat—Weeks Fresh Meat &

BOARD APPOINTS CORA M. STEWART

School Trustees Name Her Commissioner of Public Playgrounds at Regular Meeting Monday.

ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY

She and Directors and Assistants
She Will Select Will Serve
Without Pay, For Year.

Mrs. Cora M. Stewart, wife of A.
L. Stewart, was late yesterday afternoon appointed commissioner of
the public playgrounds of the school
city of Rushville to serve from July 6, 1914 to August 1, 1915 without
pay. This action was taken after the women who have been agitating
the public playground had petitioned
the school trustees to name committees to have the playground in
charge so that in case the play-
grounds were located in the city lim-
its, the act of 1913 giving the school
trustees authority to levy a tax for
maintenance might be taken advantage of some time in the future.

Mrs. Stewart was given the power
to appoint such directors and assistants as she and her committee should
judge necessary best to maintain
and control the public playgrounds.
The directors and assistants are to
serve without pay and the school
board does not, in making the appointment, assume any financial obligation for control or maintenance
of the playgrounds until further action is taking by the board authorizing such obligation and control by
the board.

The commissioner and her assistants shall have police powers as is
granted by the acts of the 1913 legislature. The petition to the school
board suggested the names of several persons to be appointed, but the
board took the position that the law
made it plain that school trustees
were to name a commissioner who
shall in turn appoint assistants.

The school board today sent the following letters to Mrs. Stewart
notifying her of her appointment:

Rushville, Ind., July 6, 1914.
Mrs. Cora M. Stewart,
Rushville, Ind.,

Dear Madam: You are hereby
notified that today at their regular
monthly meeting, the Rushville
school board appointed you commissioner of the public playground
of the school city of Rushville, Indiana, to serve without pay from this date until August 1, 1915. You are given the power to appoint such
directors and assistants as you and
your committee shall see best and
to control and maintain the public
playgrounds of the school city of Rushville, Ind., without any financial aid from the school board.

The school board heartily endorses
the movement and stands ready at
any time to advise with you as to
plans and regulations.

Yours truly,
H. A. KRAMER,
Secretary of the school board.

CAMP CLOSES TONIGHT.

The Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias camp will close tonight instead of tomorrow night as was originally announced. As a fitting close
a fried chicken and baked pickered
supper with all the necessary "trimming" will be served. The camp
managers are expecting a large crowd for the closing.

John Kelly, Jr., a local grocer, has filed an account suit against John Conroy, demanding $225. Mr. Kelly
alleges that Conroy owes him
$202.41 for groceries.

COSTING RUSH $20,000 MORE

This County Will Pay Approximately
That Much More Into State
Coffers This Year.

DUE TO BOOSTED TAX LEVY

At First Semi-Annual Settlement
This Year Increases Here Alone
is $9,882.60.

Due to the boosted tax levy of
eight and a quarter cents under Democratic rule, Rush county this
year will pay into the coffers of the
state a little less than twenty thousand dollars more than it did. This is shown by the semi-annual settlement
of the ninety-two county treasurers
of Indiana with the state treasurer.

At the June settlement last year,
Rush county paid into the state $38,- $16.27, whereas this year the county
treasurer turned over to the state
$48,698.95 in Rush county taxes.
This is a difference of $9,332.68.

But it should be remembered that
this increase in favor of the state
and against the county is for only
six months. At the December settlement there will be an increase in
the amount the county pays the state
equally as great if not greater.

The county treasurers, in making
their semi-annual settlement June 30,
paid into the state treasury an aggregate of $4,604,372.65 in comparison with $3,742,736.52 paid at the June settlement in 1913.

The increase of $861,636.13 in the
revenues for six months is due to the
boost in the state tax levy made by
the 1913 General Assembly and to
increased assessments of property.
The semi-annual settlement made by
the counties with the treasurer of
state a few days ago gave the first
line on what the revenues would be
under the readjusted state tax rate.

Of the $4,604,372.65 paid into the
state treasury at the recent June
settlement, $1,774,875.22 represents
the state school fund interest and
unclaimed fees, which is to be apportioned among the several counties. The amount apportioned among
the counties following the June settlement in 1913 was $1,693,697.94.

GIRL IS ATTACKED AS SHE LAY IN BED

Miss Margaret Sutor, Indiana University Student, and Mrs. Dora
Phillips Suffer Shock.

LATTER DIES FROM IT TODAY

(By United Press.)

Bloomington, Ind., July 7.—The
police today asserted that a man attacked Miss Margaret Sutor of Hammond, Ind., a student at Indiana university, while she lay in her bed
early yesterday.

The report of the attack was not
made until today. Miss Sutor said
that when she was first aroused she thought a cat was in her room. In an instant a man seized her by the
throat and began choking her. She screamed for help and Mrs. Dora
Phillips, with whom she roomed, ran
to the rescue. The man fled, leaving
Miss Sutor in a state of hysteria.
She is suffering from a severe nervous shock.

Mrs. Phillips died today very suddenly and it is believed the shock
from yesterday's incident superin-
duced her demise.

ST. BERNARD RETURNED

Man Wanted For Beating Board Bill
Arranges to Pay it.

Special Constable McAllister returned late last night from Warsaw
with James St. Bernard, who was wanted here on a charge of beating
a board bill of $99.60 at the Windsor
hotel. St. Bernard was arraigned before Squire Kratzer this morning
and made arrangements to pay the bill. The charge against him was not dismissed and will not be until
the bill is settled. S. W. Nicholas,
proprietor of the Windsor, filed the
charge against St. Bernard. Mr.
Nicholas did not wish to prosecute
St. Bernard as he simply wanted the money that was due him.

BOY UNCOVERS NEW PLAN TO 'BEAT WAY'

Indianapolis Youth Rides All Way
to This City on Extra Tire on
Back of Ralph Kennedy's Auto.

HE WAS AFRAID TO GET OFF

Small boys have been known to
"beat" their way on trains but it remained for an Indianapolis youth to start a new one when he bummed his
way here on the rear of an automobile. The incident occurred last week. Ralph Kennedy, formerly of this city, drove through in his machine from Joliet, Ill., to spend the Fourth of July here with relatives.
He stopped a short time in Indianapolis and then drove without a stop to the home of his father, A. L. Kennedy, north of the city.

He arrived there rather late at night and when he went to extinguish
the rear light discovered a small boy
seated on the extra tire carried on the back of the machine. The little fellow was covered with dirt and dust
and was almost asleep. He told Mr.
Kennedy that he climbed onto the
tire while the machine was in Indianapolis and when Mr. Kennedy started he was afraid of get off. The boy told his name and age. He was very cold and after staying at the Kennedy home over night was brought to this city and sent back to
his home.

POOR ASYLUM IS UNSATISFACTORY

State Board of Charities Report Presented to Commissioners Today
Comments on Institutions.

POINTS OUT WEAK SPOTS

Recommends New Closets and Plumbing and Straw Ticks in Place
of Mattresses at Jail.

The annual report of the state
board of charities was submitted to
the county commissioners this afternoon. A representative from the state board was here some months
ago and visited the Rush county institutions. As has been customary
for the past few years, the state
board recommends some changes at
the poor farm, stating that the
buildings are in poor conditions.
Some slight changes are also recommended at the county jail. The complete report follows:

Honorable Board of County Commissioners, Rush County, Rushville,
Ind.

Gentlemen:—
As required by law, a representative of this Board, on March 12,
1914, visited the poor asylum and jail
in your county and we have here-
with to make report.

POOR ASYLUM.

The superintendent's salary is $600 a year. The county pays for the help of one man and one woman.
As you know, the buildings are old
and not satisfactory. They are kept
about as well as possible under the conditions. It is very difficult to properly care for the inmates during
the winter as the water is shut off
in the building and the bath tubs
cannot be used. The only quarters
for women are on the second floor
and some of the inmates are feeble
and unable to go up and down stairs.
The halls, which are used for living
rooms, are dark and poorly ventila-
ted. The buildings are lighted by natural gas and heated by gas and coal
stoves. The bedding is standard and
in fair condition.

Population, 19 men, 5 women, total 24. Most of the inmates are old
and feeble; none are able-bodied.
The provision for sex separation is
not satisfactory. Inmates appear clean. They bathe weekly in summer but only every two weeks in winter. Plenty of clothing is provided.

RUSH COUNTY MAN FINDS HIS CHILD

William Disbennett, After Search of 8 Years, Locates Ten-Year-Old Daughter at Alexandria

ONE CHILD IS MISSING YET

After a search lasting more than eight years, William Disbennett, now of Dupont, Decatur county, but lately of this county, yesterday located his 10-year-old daughter at the home of James Lee in Alexandria. A dispatch from Anderson says Disbennett, who then lived at Alexandria, nine years ago was convicted of stealing chickens and was sent to the state prison for one year.

When his term had expired Disbennett attempted to reunite his scattered family and came to this county where he obtained employment on Hal Gosnell's farm on rural route five. He settled down and made good. He later moved to Milroy where he lived for some time, but he is now working for Wilk & Redman, the local contractors, at Dupont.

His children had been sent out from the Madison county Orphan's Home. Disbennett said he was refused all information, but four years ago recovered one of the children. The child recovered yesterday had been adopted by the Lee family, but they were willing to give up the child. One child yet remains to be found.

The cooking is done by hired help and the food is wholesome and well prepared. Religious services are not held.

The farm buildings and fences are good. The door yards are well kept. There are 14 head of cattle, 7 of which are milk cows, 4 mules, 20 swine. There is a good orchard of about 3 acres. Six hundred quarts of fruit were canned last fall. All kinds of vegetables are raised.

A heating system is the most urgent need. However, it is only a question of time until it will be necessary to erect new buildings.

JAIL.

The jail is strong and safe if properly administered. The light and ventilation are good. Steam furnishes the heat and electricity the light. City water is provided. The closets and plumbing are old and in poor condition. The sewerage is reported satisfactory. There are three bathtubs two of which are old and unfit for use. The beds are iron bunks on which are used mattresses, woolen and cotton blankets. The blankets are clean; mattresses in fair condition. The jail is clean.

There were no prisoners at the time of this visit. The sexes are separated but no other classification is made. Prisoners are required to bathe and change underclothing weekly. Three meals a day are served. Religious services are not held. Tramps are received only upon arrest.

New plumbing and closets should be installed. Straw ticks in place of mattresses are recommended.

Yours Very Truly,
The Board of State Charities,
AMOS W. BUTLER,
Secretary.

OIL TREATMENT FOR STOMACH TROUBLES

A simple prescription made up of a combination of pure vegetable oils is producing wonderful results for sufferers from stomach, liver and intestinal troubles. The remedy, which is said to have originated in France, where it has been used for years by the peasantry, was introduced into this country by George H. Mayr, a leading Chicago druggist, who cured himself of severe stomach, liver and intestinal troubles by its use. Those who have used it say the first dose is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable merit, and that within twenty-four hours the sufferer feels like a new person. This medicine, which has become known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy, is now sold by first class druggists everywhere. It is now sold here by all druggists.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

RUSH COUNTY LOSES IN APPORTIONMENT

As is Always the Case, Less Amount of School Fund is Returned Than is Sent to State.

LOSS THIS YEAR OVER $8,000

The semi-annual distribution of school revenues to Indiana counties has been made by Charles A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction. Ernest L. Welborn, deputy to Mr. Greathouse, in his official report, compiled following the receipt of the June settlements from counties by the auditor of state, showed that a total of $1,693,706.43 was distributed. The amount apportioned to the counties at the June settlement last year was $1,693,697.94. The per capita amount for children of school age sent to each county this year by the state was $2.21 and last year at the same apportionment it was $2.22.

The total amount of school revenues collected in the June settlements for distribution this year was $1,700,531.35, made up as follows: State school tax, $1,508,035.99; interest on common school fund, $266,368.44; unclaimed fees, $468.29; balance in treasury, $4,076.50. The balance left in the state treasury from the apportionment this year was $6,824.92.

The amount collected in Rush county for the school fund was $18,569.79. The amount apportioned to the county was $10,371.53. This is always the case, Rush county has to pay for the upkeep of schools in smaller and less wealthy counties.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. An Astounding Revelation

Significant among the political developments of recent date is an article in the North American Review by Colonel George Harvey, one-time friend of President Woodrow Wilson, who is credited with having thrown him overboard. In his most amazing story concerning the trend of political events, he devotes his time almost exclusively to Colonel Roosevelt. He asks the colonel some very pertinent questions which we doubt the colonel could readily answer. In one place he piles a huge mass of evidence that there is no denying. Colonel Harvey just enumerates a few returns to show how the people feel. He does not mention some of the later day primaries in which the returns have indicated the same thing. Here is the significant part of Col. Harvey's article, the effect of which cannot be lost

on any voter who reads it:

"We have already directed your attention to the obvious pining away of your political affinity. So doubtless, did the more valiant of your lieutenants during your many conferences. But did they indicate the full extent of that decline?"

"They tell you that only 48,253 of the 444,389 Pennsylvanians who voted for you participated in the recent progressive primaries, while simultaneously the democrats lost 160,000 and the republicans actually gained 55,000 and polled 80,000 more than both combined; that result by elections of congressmen resulted as follows: In Iowa, republican gain 2,000 democratic loss, 7,000; progressive loss 10,000; in New Jersey, republican gain, 4,000; democratic loss 4,000 progressive loss, 4,000; in Maine, republican loss, 6,000, democratic loss, 5,500, progressive loss, 6,800; in Massachusetts, republican loss 1,900, democratic loss, 6,000 progressive loss 5,500; in West Virginia, republican loss 1,700, democratic loss 9,000, progressive loss, 9,500; that in New York the progressive enrollment has dwindled to a beggarly 110,000, as against 390,021 votes cast for you in 1912; that in California the republican enrollment exceeds that of either democrats or progressives by more than 100,000; that South Dakota, which gave you 10,000 majority, has recently elected a regular republican United States senator by 9,000; that the recent state election in Arkansas showed a republican loss of 8,000, democratic loss 15,000 progressive loss 12,000; that in the Maryland senatorial election the republican vote increased 20,000 and the progressive vote decreased 50,000; that in Schuylers county, Pennsylvania, the republican enrollment increased 10,000 and the progressive enrollment decreased 9,000; that in Allegheny county, where Taft received only 24,000, the republican enrollment now is 127,000; that Omaha, Neb., shows republican gain of 4,000, democratic loss, 4,000 progressive loss 5,000; that the republicans swept St. Louis at the spring election and carried the leading progressive district in Chicago, and finally that few, if any, progressives have been elected to the legislatures of states which gave you the strongest support?"

"What is the true portent of these amazing republican revivals accompanied invariably by corresponding democratic reversals and progressive recessions to the vanishing point? Even the president seems at last to perceive the writing on the wall if, as reported, he gave as a reason for forcing so many democratic measures at this session his desire to clear the way for non-partisan legislative work thereafter."

"But we are not discussing the democratic predicament. It is yours and your party's that is under consideration. And here we direct your attention to a most significant change in sentiment. Three months ago, our colonel, you were complete master of the situation. Republicans without number, who had execrated your name, especially in 1912, had become so thoroughly dissatisfied with the Wilson administration that they stood ready to accept even you, chiefly, no doubt, as the lesser of the two evils, but not unwillingly at that."

"Not so now! The protracted business depression has borne so heavily upon the democratic party in public estimation that the republicans no longer feel that they need you. The wisest and shrewdest of them are convinced that the great mass of voters, for one reason or another, but chiefly because of their inability to prosper, have become so embittered that they await only an opportunity to repudiate for the time at least, not merely the party in power, but all the guise of governmental interference and governmental control regarded as radicalism that the party stands for."

"And this antipathy is reckoned to comprehend you, our colonel, and your policies no less than the president and his. It is 'a plague o' both your houses.'"

Colorado Politics

Progressives and Republicans Are Uniting
For the Common Good of a Plighted State
By J. Feudner

The State of Colorado and the city of Denver are practically in the same boat as the state of Indiana and the city of Indianapolis—namely, they have no Republican-State organ. Denver has two large newspapers—the Post, an afternoon paper, and the Rocky Mountain News, a morning paper, but which also issues an afternoon edition under the name of "The Times."

The Post is a free lance paper. It is for anything or anybody that can pay the price, and a big price at that. Its publishers were formerly in the newspaper business in Kansas City, but found it expedient to move away from that city.

The Rocky Mountain News was bought from Thomas M. Patterson a year or so ago by John C. Shaffer of Chicago, who also owns the Indianapolis Star, the Muncie Star, the Terre Haute Star, The Louisville Herald and the Chicago Evening Post, and its policy is about the same as the Indianapolis Star.

Tom Patterson, the former owner of the News, is called "the trouble maker of Denver." He is now trying to get the nomination for governor on the Democratic ticket.

At the beginning of the Colorado coal strike the newspaper publishers of the state held a meeting in Denver to outline a policy in regard to how to handle the strike news. They agreed upon a certain line of action, part of which was proposed by Shaffer who attended the meeting. But shortly afterwards "something happened to the News"—(something similar to that which Jas. E. Watson said in his recent article, happened to the Indianapolis Star, during the last presidential campaign), which caused the News to repudiate the agreement signed at the newspaper meeting and allied itself with the lawless element of the State and grossly and willfully misrepresented the conditions to such an extent as to give Colorado a "black eye," and bring about a general depression, which has prevailed all over the state for nearly a year.

Last month (in May) when conditions in Colorado were about unbearable, "law and order" mass meetings were held all over the state and law and order leagues were formed. At each one of these mass meetings the Rocky Mountain News was roundly condemned by the speakers and by strong resolutions.

When the News saw which way the wind was blowing it put up a motto in bold type on each side of the title on the front page, which reads: "Our Platform—for Law and Order, but Above all Law and Order and Justice."

A recent speaker said, "The Rocky Mountain News is trying to raise a false issue to deceive honest men and save a sinking ship of economic sentimentalism. Its talk of 'justice' as an issue shows the possibilities of a reformer, when he loses sight of facts and logical thinking. It does not seem to know that justice is a relative term and the product of something more essential and fundamental. Justice can never come till law and order methods are supreme. When we have peace, obedience to constituted authority, justice comes forth to bestow her blessings on men and nations."

"Injustice has always been the product of tyranny, anarchy and treason which demagogues, charlatans and insane reformers create. Beware of the 'Red Herring,' labeled justice. It is in this case, only another name for the socialists 'Distributive Justice.'"

Notwithstanding the frantic efforts of the News to stem the tide, the Progressives in Colorado are uniting with the Republicans, because they see that the only way to save Colorado from Democratic mismanagement and from lawlessness.

John B. Stephens, president of the Colorado Progressive Party League, in a recent speech to the Denver Republican Club, in which he proposed fusion, said:

"Before speaking on the subject I have in mind, I wish to make this announcement, that a large number of Progressives have concluded on account of the deplorable condition of our state, that our first duty as citizens is to be loyal to our state and recognizing the fact that as Progressives we cannot win alone, have decided to unite with the Progressive Republicans and to that end a committee has been appointed from the Progressives to meet with a committee of Progressive Republicans to work together. The Progressives do not represent the Progressive organization. We do this as individuals, recognizing that this is no time to bother about the ambitions of any candidates but as American citizens do our duty to Colorado."

Referring to the now famous Ben Lindsay, a juvenile court judge, who has been lecturing over the United States misrepresenting Colorado Mr. Stephens said:

"Another factor that is destroying the confidence of investors in our state is this lamentable fact, that we have with us a Lilliputian judge, I don't mean in stature, but in manhood, who is living off the taxpayers of Colorado, who are having a hard time to meet their obligations due to the absolutely false statements made concerning our state by him, and who constitutes himself self-appointed champion, to remedy our affairs by speeches throughout the country, and by these same statements causing untold suffering among the taxpayers of this county, not only to the rich but many taxpayers who are trying to meet their obligations to pay on their humble homes. We in Colorado don't have to go east for advice. We are capable of attending to our own affairs. I would advise all Colorado people to obtain a copy of Harpers' Weekly of May ninth, and there read how we in Colorado, are vilified."

Mr. Stephens, as president of the Progressive Party League of the county and city of Denver, presented a proposition to unite with the Republicans, and the fusion agreement was drawn up and signed by both parties through their proper officers.

And the same thing is happening all over the state. Both parties went to present a united front in the coming election and give Colorado again a staple and economic government to the end that prosperity and better times may come.

Pass Through His Body.

HAND TOUCHES AN IRON ARM

Alonzo Young, 30 years old, a well known resident of Shelbyville, was instantly killed by electrocution yesterday while at work as a lineman for the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company. The accident occurred just south of Shelbyville. The accident was witnessed by nine other workmen who were assisting him in taking up "slack" in the trolley wire. Young had just climbed to the arm on the pole and was getting ready to fasten his safety belt when one of his hands came in contact with the iron arm. His body stiffened and he fell backward a distance of twenty-five feet. His head struck a cross tie and death was instantaneous. Thirty-three hundred volts passed through his body.

Fight is Scheduled for Tonight at National Sporting Club Between Title Holders

SEAT SALE WAS VERY HEAVY

Will Mean Something Like $35,000 to American Win, Lose or Draw.

Corri to Referee.

(By United Press.)

London, July 7.—Unless Willie Ritchie awoke today with a pain in his toe or something else as terrible the matter with him, there'll be a fight tonight at the National Sporting Club between the American lightweight champion and Freddie Welsh light-weight title-holder of Great Britain.

One of the biggest crowds who have ever seen a boxing match in London was expected to see the international clash this morning. Because of England's comeback in polo, not to mention the Oxford University track team's victory in America. English sporting men today evinced great interest in the Ritchie-Welsh bout. Both boys issued the usual prophesy of victory. Both claimed to be in the best possible shape. Betting was about even although Englishmen, in the majority of cases demanded and frequently got slight odds on the argument that Ritchie should be the favorite on form.

Eugene Corri, Ritchie's choice, will referee the mill, which is scheduled to go twenty rounds. Under the agreement, Ritchie is guaranteed $15,000 with a privilege of fifty-one per cent of the gross receipts. In addition, the American champion gets moving picture privileges which, it is estimated will be worth $11,000 and advertising privileges worth $10,000 more. Altogether, win, lose or draw, Ritchie will go back to America some $35,000 or $40,000 better off than when he left his home shores. The winner is to assume the title of lightweight champion of the world.

As was natural, there was a world of speculation on the outcome of the fight. Welsh is admittedly a first class lightweight. Even wildly enthusiastic Americans in London, who are betting rather recklessly on the outcome, admit this, by virtue of Welsh's performances during his recent tour of The States. Ritchie, Englishmen admit far better than the average in cleverness. They argue, however, that the American won from the wild-cat fighter, Wolgast, when the latter was far from being as good as he had been up to six or eight months previous to the day he lost his crown to Ritchie. They believe Ritchie will not be able to take the punishment which they believe Welsh will give him despite Ritchie's science and defense. Welsh they say, has the punch and the stamina, and while not nearly so clever as Ritchie can stand more of a beating than the American had can hand out.

The ability of the Indians as ball players is well known and the game should prove interesting besides being a novel attraction. The team is composed of full blooded Chippewa Indians, with the exception of two men, the manager and one player.

A curtain raiser to the big game will be played between the Methodist and Christian church teams of the Sunday school league. This game will start at one-thirty o'clock and the big game will be called at two-thirty o'clock. The band will play during the game. A large crowd is expected.

RUSHVILLE BOYS WERE LET OFF EASY

Said to Have Been Intoxicated in Greensburg But Were Turned Loose by Mayor.

ATTEMPTED TO SELL DRINK

Four youths from Rushville, evidently impressed with the idea that cut rate prices on booze would meet with at least some response in this dry Sahara, tried to pull off a stunt at bootlegging on a small scale Saturday afternoon, it is alleged says the Greensburg News.

The four who on arrest gave their names to be Ray Brown, George Myers, Delbert Newman and Charles Bennett, had taken up a station on Michigan Ave., near the Jones & Kofoed Lumber Company's plant. Attention of the public was first directed to them by their insulting remarks made to passers by. Later it was reported to the police they were trying to dispose of about two-thirds of a quart of whiskey at ten cents a drink. Officers Johnson and Loudon caught them after a race of several blocks. There was no direct evidence to show that the boys had Mayor's court this morning they really sold any liquor and in the stoutly asserted they had found the liquor in a lumber yard. They were allowed to leave town without the formality of paying a fine.

Torreon, Mexico, July 7.—General Villa today expressed confidence that the confidence now in progress here will result in satisfactory settlement of his differences with General Carranza though a serious deadlock has developed. Villa has demanded that Carranza remove from office four officers of his provisional government. Carranza has replied by demanding the removal of five of Villa's supporters, including General Angeles.

Another brigade of Villa's troops was sent north today to recuperate in the mountain country before the campaign against Mexico City starts.

CONVENTION IS ON IN COLUMBUS

Municipal Delegates from Over State Gather There for Annual Three-Day Meeting

WERE GREETED BY BOY SCOUTS

Amendment to Constitution Allowing Cities to Increase Bond Issues is Proposed

Columbus, Ind., July 7.—Greeted by scores of Boy Scouts from the Columbus patrol, delegates to the annual three-day meeting of the Municipal League of Indiana arrived here today and registered at the city hall. An informal reception was the visitors in the forenoon, the convention proper opening this afternoon with a brief address by Arthur D. Cunningham, of LaFayette, president, and a welcoming address by Mayor Volland.

A proposed amendment to the state constitution giving cities the right to issue bonds to a larger amount than is now permitted, is one of the matters of prime importance to be discussed at the meeting. Frank N. Richman, local attorney, will speak in favor of the amendment tomorrow morning and other men who favor it will canvass the sentiment of the visiting delegates.

Mrs. Charles S. Wray, wife of the president of the Commercial Club, is chairman of a committee of women who are looking after the entertainment of wives of the visitors. Several informal affairs have been planned.

The only set address scheduled for this afternoon is that of S. W. Potter, superintendent of the Washington, Ind., water works, who was to speak on the "Filtration of a City Water Supply." Several addresses were scheduled for tonight, but the keenest interest was displayed in the announcement that Mrs. Thomas F. Hart, of Muncie, Ind., who is a regular member of the Muncie police force will talk on "The Practical Experience of a Policewoman."

Miss Vida Newsom of Columbus, president of the Indiana State Federation of Women's clubs, will speak tonight on "Woman's part in Civic Betterment" and R. O. Johnson, new mayor of Gary, Ind., will talk on combination of school and park systems in city administrative work.

Municipal markets will be discussed tomorrow by Mayor William J. Robbins of Richmond, who has taken much interest in the market problem. Other speakers at tomorrow's session include Dr. J. N. Hurty of the state board of health; John A. Gavitt, city attorney of Hammond; H. T. Watts, city engineer of Vincennes; Martin T. Krueger, mayor of Michigan City, and William C. Smith, mayor of Delphi.

Municipal ownership of public utilities will be the subject of an address at the closing session Thursday morning by Mayor John W. McCarty of Washington. Officers will be elected at the closing session and next year's meeting place selected.

DELIVERS PARTY REAL BODY BLOW

William Allen White, Who Was Chief
Among Those Standing at Armageddon, Sees Obliterate.

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Declares Bull Moosers Will Not Poll
More Than 5,000 Votes in Kansas Primary in August.

Topeka, Kas., July 7.—Just before he left for his summer home in Colorado, where he will remain until fall, William Allen White gave out a statement for publication which is regarded the most important of the campaign thus far made.

As an admission of weakness on the part of the Bull Moose party in Kansas it was greeted with joy by the Republicans. Democrats, hoping the Moosers will pull enough votes from the Republicans to insure another Democratic victory, were less pleased.

White's announcement was the the Moosers would probably not poll more than five thousand votes at the primary to nominate candidates for all parties in August. White is chief among those who stood at Armageddon in the Kansas campaign two years ago. He is the chief scribe and oracle of them unto this day.

The statement is significant, Republican leaders say, in view of the fact that the Armageddonites polled 124,000 votes in Kansas two years ago. The Socialists drew 36,000 votes, or seven times the vote that Mr. White expects the Progressives to cast in the primary next month for candidates carefully selected for their peculiar fitness to make the campaign by the dozen leaders of the party who assigned themselves to this task. There are no contests among the Progressives for the nominations, there being only one man in the field for each office.

The Moose candidates for county office are expected to pay their own way, generally, while those who were induced to become candidates for state office, in several cases at least, are said to have been assured the campaign would not cost them a penny. This brings up the interesting question of who is furnishing the Moose money, and the Republican leaders frankly admit that they would like to know the answer. The Republican party had no such fund to draw upon. The candidates for state office are paying their way in the primary campaign and expect to continue paying it in the fight following the primary.

Measure Before Cincinnati to Grant
I & C. Right to Extend C. &
W. Line to Canal.

PART OF PLAN TO ENTER CITY

Proposed Ordinance Recites That Old C. & W. Will be Extended to Harrison and Thence Here.

One of the first steps towards an extension of the I. & C. traction line to Cincinnati is being taken in the acquiring by Indianapolis interurban interests of a right of way into Cincinnati and terminal facilities there.

An ordinance which will give the company the right of way it desires is now under consideration by the Cincinnati council. The proposed extension would be from Rushville to Harrison, O., and thence into Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune contained the following article regarding the proceedings to obtain the right of way:

"Some months ago when the Commercial Tribune said the right of way of the old Cincinnati & Westwood steam railway, known as the Gamble line, had been acquired by Indianapolis interurban interests there were numerous denials.

"The Commercial Tribune also stated that the line to run along the Ohio river to Madison, Ind., would use the Cincinnati & Westwood line to get into the city.

"All this was confirmed when at a special meeting of the city council an ordinance was submitted to grant the Cincinnati, Harrison & Indianapolis Electric Railway Company the right to extend its line from the terminus of the Cincinnati & Westwood line to the canal.

"It is recited in the proposed ordinance that the right of way of the Cincinnati & Westwood has been acquired by the C. H. & I. E. railway. It is also recited that an extension will be made to Harrison and thus connect up with the Rushville branch of the Cincinnati & Indianapolis Traction Company, and also that it is desired to have an entrance into the heart of the city."

Funston of Mutiny in Ranks

REPORT MADE TO WASHINGTON

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—Confirmation of United Press dispatches that Mexican troops at Vera Cruz had revolted was contained today in an official dispatch to the war department from General Funston.

General Maas, commanding the Mexican Federals, notified General Funston of the revolt. Maas reported that the mutinous soldiers may attack the American troops at any time but informed him that such an attack must not be understood as under the orders of the Huerta government.

General Funston reported that he had no fear of serious trouble.

ALFRED BADA MAY NOT BE PROSECUTED

It is Improbable That Action Will be
Taken Because of Expense
Which Would be Attached.

LIKELY OUT OF CINCINNATI

It is very probable that Alfred
Bada, the fireworks man who got
$49.50 out of Rushville under false
pretenses, will not be prosecuted be-
cause of the expense attached. When
the Cincinnati authorities were asked
to apprehend Bada, they replied that the warrant for his arrest would
have to be filed here. The prosecuting
attorney was consulted. He said it
would be necessary for the warrant
to be filed in Cincinnati because the
alleged crime was committed there.

It is not very likely, however, that Bada is still in Cincinnati. It is the
opinion here that he has returned to
his home in Pennsylvania. In that
event, it would be necessary to get
requisition papers from the govern-
or of Ohio for his return and the
promoters of the Fourth of July
event here would have to stand all expenses. It would be necessary to pay
the expense of a special agent to
bring him back to Ohio.

Bada succeeded in talking a Cin-

BOARD APPOINTS CORA M. STEWART

School Trustees Name Her Commissioner of Public Playgrounds at
Regular Meeting Monday.

ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY

She and Directors and Assistants
She Will Select Will Serve
Without Pay, For Year.

Mrs. Cora M. Stewart, wife of A.
L. Stewart, was late yesterday afternoon appointed commissioner of
the public playgrounds of the school
city of Rushville to serve from July 6, 1914 to August 1, 1915 without
pay. This action was taken after
the women who have been agitating
the public playground had petitioned
the school trustees to name commit-
tees to have the playground in
charge so that in case the play-
grounds were located in the city lim-
its, the act of 1913 giving the school
trustees authority to levy a tax for
maintenance might be taken advantage of some time in the future.

Mrs. Stewart was given the power
to appoint such directors and assist-
ants as she and her committee should
judge necessary best to maintain
and control the public playgrounds.
The directors and assistants are to
serve without pay and the school
board does not, in making the appointment, assume any financial obligation for control or maintenance
of the playgrounds until further action is taking by the board authorizing such obligation and control by
the board.

The commissioner and her assist-
ants shall have police powers as is
granted by the acts of the 1913 legislature. The petition to the school
board suggested the names of several persons to be appointed, but the
board took the position that the law
made it plain that school trustees
were to name a commissioner who
shall in turn appoint assistants.

The school board today sent the
following letters to Mrs. Stewart
notifying her of her appointment:
Rushville, Ind., July 6, 1914.

Mrs. Cora M. Stewart,
Rushville, Ind.,

Dear Madam: You are hereby
notified that today, at their regular
monthly meeting, the Rushville
school board appointed you commissioner of the public playground
of the school city of Rushville, Indiana, to serve without pay from this
date until August 1, 1915. You are
given the power to appoint such
directors and assistants as you and
your committee shall see best and
to control and maintain the public
playgrounds of the school city of Rushville, Ind., without any financial aid from the school board.

The school board heartily endorses
the movement and stands ready at
any time to advise with you as to
plans and regulations.

Yours truly,
H. A. KRAMER,
Secretary of the school board.

CAMP CLOSES TONIGHT.

Pythias camp will close tonight instead of tomorrow night as was originally announced. As a fitting close
a fried chicken and baked pickelrel
supper with all the necessary "trimming" will be served. The camp
managers are expecting a large
crowd for the closing.

filed an account suit against John
Conroy, demanding $225. Mr. Kelly
alleges that Conroy owes him
$262.41 for groceries.

COSTING RUSH $20,000 MORE

This County Will Pay Approximately
That Much More Into State
Coffers This Year.

At First Semi-Annual Settlement
This Year Increases Here Alone
is $9,882.60.

Due to the boosted tax levy of
eight and a quarter cents under
Democratic rule, Rush county this
year will pay into the coffers of the
state a little less than twenty thousand dollars more than it did. This is
shown by the semi-annual settlement
of the ninety-two county treasurers
of Indiana with the state treasurer.

At the June settlement last year,
Rush county paid into the state $38,- 816.27, whereas this year the county
treasurer turned over to the state
$48,698.95 in Rush county taxes.
This is a difference of $9,882.68.

But it should be remembered that
this increase in favor of the state
and against the county is for only
six months. At the December settlement there will be an increase in
the amount the county pays the state
equally as great if not greater.

The county treasurers, in making
their semi-annual settlement June 30,
paid into the state treasury an aggregate of $4,604,372.65 in comparison with $3,742,736.52 paid at the
June settlement in 1913.

The increase of $861,636.13 in the
revenues for six months is due to the
boost in the state tax levy made by
the 1913 General Assembly and to
increased assessments of property.
The semi-annual settlement made by
the counties with the treasurer of
state a few days ago gave the first
line on what the revenues would be
under the readjusted state tax rate.

Of the $4,604,372.65 paid into the
state treasury at the recent June
settlement, $1,774,875.22 represents
the state school fund interest and
unclaimed fees, which is to be ap-
portioned among the several counties. The amount apportioned among
the counties following the June settlement in 1913 was $1,693,697.94.

GIRL IS ATTACKED AS SHE LAY IN BED

Miss Margaret Sutor, Indiana Uni-
versity Student, and Mrs. Dora
Phillips Suffer Shock.

LATTER DIES FROM IT TODAY

(By United Press.)

Bloomington, Ind., July 7.—The
police today asserted that a man attacked Miss Margaret Sutor of Hammond, Ind., a student at Indiana
university, while she lay in her bed
early yesterday.

The report of the attack was not
made until today. Miss Sutor said
that when she was first aroused she
thought a cat was in her room. In
an instant a man seized her by the
throat and began choking her. She screamed for help and Mrs. Dora
Phillips, with whom she roomed, ran
to the rescue. The man fled, leaving
Miss Sutor in a state of hysteria.
She is suffering from a severe nervous shock.

Mrs. Phillips died today very suddenly and it is believed the shock
from yesterday's incident superin-
duced her demise.

ST. BERNARD RETURNED

Man Wanted For Beating Board Bill
Arranges to Pay it.

Special Constable McAllister re-
turned late last night from Warsaw
with James St. Bernard, who was
wanted here on a charge of beating
a board bill of $99.60 at the Windsor
hotel. St. Bernard was arraigned before Squire Krafzer this morning
and made arrangements to pay the
bill. The charge against him was
not dismissed and will not be until
the bill is settled. S. W. Nicholas,
proprietor of the Windsor, filed the
charge against St. Bernard. Mr.
Nicholas did not wish to prosecute
St. Bernard as he simply wanted the
money that was due him.

BOY UNCOVERS NEW PLAN TO 'BEAT WAY'

Indianapolis Youth Rides All Way
to This City on Extra Tire on
Back of Ralph Kennedy's Auto.

Small boys have been known to
"beat" their way on trains but it remained for an Indianapolis youth to start a new one when he hopped his
way here on the rear of an automobile. The incident occurred last week. Ralph Kennedy, formerly of
this city, drove through in his machine from Joliet, Ill., to spend the Fourth of July here with relatives.
He stopped a short time in Indianapolis and then drove without a stop
to the home of his father, A. L. Kennedy, north of the city.

He arrived there rather late at
night and when he went to extinguish
the rear light discovered a small boy
seated on the extra tire carried on
the back of the machine. The little fellow was covered with dirt and dust
and was almost asleep. He told Mr.
Kennedy that he climbed onto the
tire while the machine was in Indianapolis and when Mr. Kennedy
started he was afraid of getting off.
The boy told his name and age. He was very cold and after staying at the Kennedy home over night was
brought to this city and sent back to
his home.

POOR ASYLUM IS UNSATISFACTORY

State Board of Charities Report Pre-
sented to Commissioners Today
Comments on Institutions.

POINTS OUT WEAK SPOTS

Recommends New Closets and Plum-
bing and Straw Ticks in Place
of Mattresses at Jail.

The annual report of the state
board of charities was submitted to
the county commissioners this afternoon. A representative from the state board was here some months
ago and visited the Rush county institutions. As has been customary
for the past few years the state
board recommends some changes at
the poor farm, stating that the
buildings are in poor conditions.
Some slight changes are also recommended at the county jail. The complete report follows:

Honorable Board of County Commissioners, Rush County, Rushville,
Ind.,
Gentlemen:—

As required by law, a representative of this Board, on March 12,
1914, visited the poor asylum and jail
in your county and we have here-
with to make report.

POOR ASYLUM.

The superintendent's salary is $690 a year. The county pays for
the help of one man and one woman.
As you know, the buildings are old
and not satisfactory. They are kept
about as well as possible under the
conditions. It is very difficult to
properly care for the inmates during
the winter as the water is shut off
in the building and the bath tubs
cannot be used. The only quarters
for women are on the second floor
and some of the inmates are feeble
and unable to go up and down stairs.
The halls, which are used for living
rooms, are dark and poorly ventila-
ted. The buildings are lighted by natural gas and heated by gas and coal
stoves. The bedding is standard and
in fair condition.

Population, 19 men, 5 women, total 24. Most of the inmates are old
and feeble; none are able-bodied.
The provision for sex separation is
not satisfactory. Inmates appear
clean. They bathe weekly in summer but only every two weeks in winter. Plenty of clothing is provided.

RUSH COUNTY MAN FINDS HIS CHILD

William Disbennett, After Search of 8 Years, Locates Ten-Year-Old Daughter at Alexandria

ONE CHILD IS MISSING YET

After a search lasting more than eight years, William Disbennett, now of Dupont, Decatur county, but lately of this county, yesterday located his 10-year-old daughter at the home of James Lee in Alexandria. A dispatch from Anderson says Disbennett, who then lived at Alexandria, nine years ago was convicted of stealing chickens and was sent to the state prison for one year. When his term had expired Disbennett attempted to reunite his scattered family and came to this county where he obtained employment on Hal Gosnell's farm on rural route five. He settled down and made good. He later moved to Millroy where he lived for some time, but he is now working for Wilk & Redman, the local contractors, at Dupont. His children had been sent out from the Madison county Orphan's Home. Disbennett said he was refused all information, but four years ago recovered one of the children. The child recovered yesterday had been adopted by the Lee family, but they were willing to give up the child. One child yet remains to be found.

The cooking is done by hired help and the food is wholesome and well prepared. Religious services are not held.

The farm buildings and fences are good. The door yards are well kept. There are 14 head of cattle, 7 of which are milk cows, 4 mules, 20 swine. There is a good orchard of about 3 acres. Six hundred quarts of fruit were canned last fall. All kinds of vegetables are raised.

A heating system is the most urgent need. However, it is only a question of time until it will be necessary to erect new buildings.

JAIL.

The jail is strong and safe if properly administered. The light and ventilation are good. Steam furnishes the heat and electricity the light. City water is provided. The closets and plumbing are old and in poor condition. The sewerage is reported satisfactory. There are three bath tubs two of which are old and unfit for use. The beds are iron bunks on which are used mattresses, woolen and cotton blankets. The blankets are clean; mattresses in fair condition. The jail is clean.

There were no prisoners at the time of this visit. The sexes are separated but no other classification is made. Prisoners are required to bathe and change underclothing weekly. Three meals a day are served. Religious services are not held. Tramps are received only upon arrest.

New plumbing and closets should be installed. Straw ticks in place of mattresses are recommended.

Yours Very Truly,
The Board of State Charities,
AMOS W. BUTLER,
Secretary.

OIL TREATMENT FOR STOMACK TROUBLES

A simple prescription made up of a combination of pure vegetable oils is producing wonderful results for sufferers from stomach, liver and intestinal troubles. The remedy, which is said to have originated in France, where it has been used for years by the peasantry, was introduced into this country by George H. Mayr, a leading Chicago druggist, who cured himself of severe stomach, liver and intestinal troubles by its use. Those who have used it say the first dose is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable merit, and that within twenty-four hours the sufferer feels like a new person. This medicine, which has become known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomack Remedy, is now sold by first class druggists everywhere. It is now sold here by all druggists.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it. Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jaid Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again. Jaid Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jaid Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

RUSH COUNTY LOSES IN APPORTIONMENT

As is Always the Case, Less Amount of School Fund is Returned Than is Sent to State.

LOSS THIS YEAR OVER $8,000

The semi-annual distribution of school revenues to Indiana counties has been made by Charles A. Great-house, state superintendent of public instruction. Ernest L. Welborn, deputy to Mr. Greathouse, in his official report, compiled following the receipt of the June settlements from counties by the auditor of state, showed that a total of $1,693,706.43 was distributed. The amount apportioned to the counties at the June settlement last year was $1,693,697.94. The per capita amount for children of school age sent to each county this year by the state was $2.21 and last year at the same apportionment it was $2.22.

The total amount of school revenues collected in the June settlements for distribution this year was $1,709,531.35, made up as follows: State school tax, $1,508,035.99; interest on common school fund, $266,368.44; unclaimed fees, $468.29; balance in treasury, $4,076.50. The balance left in the state treasury from the apportionment this year was $6,824.92.

The amount collected in Rush county for the school fund was $18,569.79. The amount apportioned to the county was $10,371.53. This is always the case. Rush county has to pay for the upkeep of schools in smaller and less wealthy counties.

WILL BE HELD AS PRISONERS

(By United Press.)
Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 7.—Mexican Federal troops stationed six miles beyond the American line are in a state of revolt. Three hundred Federal soldiers sent word to Carranza representatives here that they will surrender and will march into the American lines, turning over arms and ammunition.

General Funston today issued orders to the American troops to be on the lookout for the Federal soldiers and not to shoot at them if they came through the American lines. If they actually surrender, they probably will be held prisoners in the same manner as the Mexican Federals who fled to the United States.

after the battle of Ojinaga. News of the revolt surprised American army officers because the troops stationed outside the American lines at Vera Cruz were supposed to be the pick of Huerta's army.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. An Astounding Revelation

Significant among the political developments of recent date is an article in the North American Review by Colonel George Harvey, one-time friend of President Woodrow Wilson, who is credited with having thrown him overboard. In his most amazing story concerning the trend of political events, he devotes his time almost exclusively to Colonel Roosevelt. He asks the colonel some very pertinent questions which we doubt the colonel could readily answer. In one place he piles a huge mass of evidence that there is no denying. Colonel Harvey just enumerates a few returns to show how the people feel. He does not mention some of the later day primaries in which the returns have indicated the same thing. There is the significant part of Col. Harvey's article, the effect of which cannot be lost

on any voter who reads it:

"We have already directed your attention to the obvious pining away of your political affinity. So doubtless, did the more valiant of your lieutenants during your many conferences. But did they indicate the full extent of that decline?"

"They tell you that only 48,253 of the 444,389 Pennsylvanians who voted for you participated in the recent progressive primaries, while simultaneously the democrats lost 160,000 and the republicans actually gained 55,000 and polled 80,000 more than both combined; that result by elections of congressmen resulted as follows: In Iowa, republican gain 2,000 democratic loss, 7,000; progressive loss 10,000; in New Jersey, republican gain, 4,000; democratic loss 4,000 progressive loss, 4,000; in Maine, republican loss, 6,000, democratic loss, 5,500, progressive loss, 6,800; in Massachusetts, republican loss 1,900, democratic loss, 6,000 progressive loss 5,500; in West Virginia, republican loss 1,700, democratic loss 9,000, progressive loss, 9,500; that in New York the progressive enrollment has dwindled to a beggarly 110,000, as against 390,021 votes cast for you in 1912; that in California the republican enrollment exceeds that of either democrats or progressives by more than 100,000; that South Dakota, which gave you 10,000 majority, has recently elected a regular republican United States senator by 9,000; that the recent state election in Arkansas showed a republican loss of 8,000, democratic loss 15,000 progressive loss 12,000; that in the Maryland senatorial election the republican vote increased 20,000 and the progressive vote decreased 50,000; that in Schuylker county, Pennsylvania, the republican enrollment increased 10,000 and the progressive enrollment decreased 9,000; that in Allegheny county, where Taft received only 24,000, the republican enrollment now is 127,000; that Omaha, Neb., shows republican gain of 4,000, democratic loss, 4,000 progressive loss 5,000; that the republicans swept St. Louis at the spring election and carried the leading progressive district in Chicago, and finally that few, if any, progressives have been elected to the legislatures of states which gave you the strongest support?"

"What is the true portent of these amazing republican revivals accompanied invariably by corresponding democratic reversals and progressive recessions to the vanishing point? Even the president seems at last to perceive the writing on the wall if, as reported, he gave as a reason for forcing so many democratic measures at this session his desire to clear the way for non-partisan legislative work thereafter."

"But we are not discussing the democratic predicament. It is yours and your party's that is under consideration. And here we direct your attention to a most significant change in sentiment. Three months ago, our colonel, you were complete master of the situation. Republicans without number, who had exonerated your name, especially in 1912, had become so thoroughly dissatisfied with the Wilson administration that they stood ready to accept even you, chiefly, no doubt, as the lesser of the two evils, but not unwillingly at that."

"Not so now! The protracted business depression has borne so heavily upon the democratic party in public estimation that the republicans no longer feel that they need you. The wisest and shrewdest of them are convinced that the great mass of voters, for one reason or another, but chiefly because of their inability to prosper, have become so embittered that they await only an opportunity to repudiate for the time at least, not merely the party in power, but all the guise of governmental interference and governmental control regarded as radicalism that the party stands for."

"And this antipathy is reckoned to comprehend you, our colonel, and your policies no less than the president and his. It is 'a plague o' both your houses.'"

Colorado Politics
Progressives and Republicans Are Uniting
For the Common Good of a Plighted State
By J. Feudner

The State of Colorado and the city of Denver are practically in the same boat as the state of Indiana and the city of Indianapolis—namely, they have no Republican-State organ. Denver has two large newspapers—the Post, an afternoon paper, and the Rocky Mountain News, a morning paper, but which also issues an afternoon edition under the name of "The Times."

The Post is a free lance paper. It is for anything or anybody that can pay the price, and a big price at that. Its publishers were formerly in the newspaper business in Kansas City, but found it expedient to move away from that city.

The Rocky Mountain News was bought from Thomas M. Patterson a year or so ago by John C. Shaffer of Chicago, who also owns the Indianapolis Star, the Muncie Star, the Terre Haute Star, The Louisville Herald and the Chicago Evening Post, and its policy is about the same as the Indianapolis Star.

Tom Patterson, the former owner of the News, is called "the trouble maker of Denver." He is now trying to get the nomination for governor on the Democratic ticket.

At the beginning of the Colorado coal strike the newspaper publishers of the state held a meeting in Denver to outline a policy in regard to how to handle the strike news. They agreed upon a certain line of action, part of which was proposed by Shaffer who attended the meeting. But shortly afterwards "something happened to the News"—(something similar to that which Jas. E. Watson said in his recent article, happened to the Indianapolis Star, during the last presidential campaign), which caused the News to repudiate the agreement signed at the newspaper meeting and allied itself with the lawless element of the State and grossly and willfully misrepresented the conditions to such an extent as to give Colorado a "black eye," and bring about a general depression, which has prevailed all over the state for nearly a year.

Last month (in May) when conditions in Colorado were about unbearable, "law and order" mass meetings were held all over the state and law and order leagues were formed. At each one of these mass meetings the Rocky Mountain News was roundly condemned by the speakers and by strong resolutions.

When the News saw which way the wind was blowing it put up a motto in bold type on each side of the title on the front page, which reads: "Our Platform—For Law and Order, but Above all Law and Order and Justice."

A recent speaker said, "The Rocky Mountain News is trying to raise a false issue to deceive honest men and save a sinking ship of economic sentimentalism. Its talk of 'justice' as an issue shows the possibilities of a reformer, when he loses sight of facts and logical thinking. It does not seem to know that justice is a relative term and the product of something more essential and fundamental. Justice can never come till law and order methods are supreme. When we have peace, obedience to constituted authority, justice comes forth to bestow her blessings on men and nations."

"Injustice has always been the product of tyranny, anarchy and treason which demagogues, charlatans and insane reformers create. Beware of the 'Red Herring' labeled justice. It is in this case, only another name for the socialists 'Distributive Justice.'"

Notwithstanding the frantic efforts of the News to stem the tide, the Progressives in Colorado are uniting with the Republicans, because they see that the only way to save Colorado from Democratic mismanagement and from lawlessness.

John B. Stephens, president of the Colorado Progressive Party League, in a recent speech to the Denver Republican Club, in which he proposed fusion, said:

"Before speaking on the subject I have in mind, I wish to make this announcement, that a large number of Progressives have concluded on account of the deplorable condition of our state, that our first duty as citizens is to be loyal to our state and recognizing the fact that as Progressives we cannot win alone, have decided to unite with the Progressive Republicans and to that end a committee has been appointed from the Progressives to meet with a committee of Progressive Republicans to work together. The Progressives do not represent the Progressive organization. We do this as individuals, recognizing that this is no time to bother about the ambitions of any candidates but as American citizens do our duty in Colorado."

Referring to the now famous Ben Lindsay, a juvenile court judge, who has been lecturing over the United States misrepresenting Colorado Mr. Stephens said:

"Another factor that is destroying the confidence of investors in our state is this lamentable fact, that we have with us a Lilliputian judge. I don't mean in stature, but in manhood, who is living off the taxpayers of Colorado, who are having a hard time to meet their obligations due to the absolutely false statements made concerning our state by him, and who constitutes himself self-appointed champion, to remedy our affairs by speeches throughout the country, and by these same statements causing untold suffering among the taxpayers of this country, not only to the rich but many taxpayers who are trying to meet their obligations to pay on their humble homes. We in Colorado don't have to go east for advice. We are capable of attending to our own affairs. I would advise all Colorado people to obtain a copy of Harpers' Weekly of May ninth, and there read how we in Colorado, are vilified."

Mr. Stephens, as president of the Progressive Party League of the county and city of Denver, presented a proposition to unite with the Republicans, and the fusion agreement was drawn up and signed by both parties through their proper officers.

And the same thing is happening all over the state. Both parties went to present a united front in the coming election and give Colorado again a staple and economic government to the end that prosperity and better times may come.

HAND TOUCHES AN IRON ARM
Alonzo Young, 30 years old, a well known resident of Shelbyville, was instantly killed by electrocution yesterday while at work as a lineman for the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company. The accident occurred just south of Shelbyville. The accident was witnessed by nine other workmen who were assisting him in taking up "slack" in the trolley wire. Young had just climbed to the arm on the pole and was getting ready to fasten his safety belt when one of his hands came in contact with the iron arm. His body stiffened and he fell backward a distance of twenty-five feet. His head struck a cross tie and death was instantaneous. Thirty-three hundred volts passed through his body.

Fight is Scheduled for Tonight at National Sporting Club Between Title Holders

Will Mean Something Like $35,000 to American Win, Lose or Draw. Corri to Referee.

(By United Press.)

London, July 7.—Unless Willie Ritchie awoke today with a pain in his toe or something else as terrible the matter with him, there'll be a fight tonight at the National Sporting Club between the American lightweight champion and Freddie Welsh light-weight title-holder of Great Britain.

One of the biggest crowds who has ever seen a boxing match in London was expected to see the international clash this morning. Because of England's comeback in polo, not to mention the Oxford University track team's victory in America. English sporting men today evinced great interest in the Ritchie-Welsh bout. Both boys issued the usual prophesy of victory. Both claimed to be in the best possible shape. Betting was about even although Englishmen, in the majority of cases demanded and frequently got slight odds on the argument that Ritchie should be the favorite on form.

Eugene Corri, Ritchie's choice, will referee the mill, which is scheduled to go twenty rounds. Under the agreement, Ritchie is guaranteed $15,000 with a privilege of fifty-one per cent of the gross receipts. In addition, the American champion gets moving picture privileges which, it is estimated will be worth $11,000 and advertising privileges worth $10,000 more. Altogether, win, lose or draw, Ritchie will go back to America some $35,000 or $40,000 better off than when he left his home shores. The winner is to assume the title of lightweight champion of the world.

As was natural, there was a world of speculation on the outcome of the fight. Welsh is admittedly a first class lightweight. Even widely enthusiastic Americans in London, who are betting rather recklessly on the outcome, admit this, by virtue of Welsh's performances during his recent tour of The States. Ritchie, Englishmen admit far better than the average in cleverness. They argue, however, that the American won from the wild-cat fighter, Wolgast, when the latter was far from being as good as he had been up to six or eight months previous to the day he lost his crown to Ritchie. They believe Ritchie will not be able to take the punishment which they believe Welsh will give him despite Ritchie's science and defense. Welsh they say, has the punch and the stamina, and while not nearly so clever as Ritchie can stand more of a beating than the American had can hand out.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

The Chippewa Indians will play the Arlington Red Sox here Wednesday afternoon. The Indians carry a complete band with them and a concert will be given tonight and tomorrow afternoon before the game. The team is composed of full blooded Chippewa Indians, with the exception of two men, the manager and one player.

A curtain raiser to the big game will be played between the Methodist and Christian church teams of the Sunday school league. This game will start at one-thirty o'clock and the big game will be called at two-thirty o'clock. The band will play during the game. A large crowd is expected.

RUSHVILLE BOYS WERE LET OFF EASY

Said to Have Been Intoxicated in Greensburg But Were Turned Loose by Mayor.

Four youths from Rushville, evidently impressed with the idea that cut rate prices on booze would meet with at least some response in this dry Sahara, tried to pull off a stunt at bootlegging on a small scale Saturday afternoon. It is alleged says the Greensburg News.

The four who on arrest gave their names to be Ray Brown, George Myers, Delbert Newman and Charles Bennett, had taken up a station on Michigan Ave., near the Jones & Kofoid Lumber Company's plant. Attention of the public was first directed to them by their insulting remarks made to passers by. Later it was reported to the police they were trying to dispose of about two-thirds of a quart of whiskey at ten cents a drink. Officers Johnson and London caught them after a race of several blocks. There was no direct evidence to show that the boys had Mayor's court this morning they really sold any liquor and in the stoutly asserted they had found the liquor in a lumber yard. They were allowed to leave town without the formality of paying a fine.

CONVENTION IS ON IN COLUMBUS

Municipal Delegates from Over State Gather There for Annual Three-Day Meeting

WERE GREETED BY BOY SCOUTS

Amendment to Constitution Allowing Cities to Increase Bond Issues is Proposed

(By United Press.)

Columbus, Ind., July 7.—Greeted by scores of Boy Scouts from the Columbus patrol, delegates to the annual three-day meeting of the Municipal League of Indiana arrived here today and registered at the city hall. An informal reception was the visitors in the forenoon, the convention proper opening this afternoon with a brief address by Arthur D. Cunningham, of Lafayette, president, and a welcoming address by Mayor Volland.

A proposed amendment to the state constitution giving cities the right to issue bonds to a larger amount than is now permitted, is one of the matters of prime importance to be discussed at the meeting. Frank N. Richmond, local attorney, will speak in favor of the amendment tomorrow morning and other men who favor it will canvass the sentiment of the visiting delegates.

Mrs. Charles S. Wray, wife of the president of the Commercial Club, is chairman of a committee of women who are looking after the entertainment of wives of the visitors. Several informal affairs have been planned.

The only set address scheduled for this afternoon is that of S. W. Potter, superintendent of the Washington, Ind., water works, who was to speak on the "Filtration of a City Water Supply." Several addresses were scheduled for tonight, but the keenest interest was displayed in the announcement that Mrs. Thomas F. Hart, of Muncie, Ind., who is a regular member of the Muncie police force will talk on "The Practical Experience of a Policewoman."

Miss Vida Newsom of Columbus, president of the Indiana State Federation of Women's clubs, will speak tonight on "Woman's part in Civic Betterment" and R. O. Johnson, new mayor of Gary, Ind., will talk on combination of school and park systems in city administrative work.

Municipal markets will be discussed tomorrow by Mayor William J. Robbins of Richmond, who has taken much interest in the market problem. Other speakers at tomorrow's session include Dr. J. N. Hurty of the state board of health; John A. Gavitt, city attorney of Hammond; H. T. Watts, city engineer of Vincennes; Martin T. Krueger, mayor of Michigan City; and William C. Smith, mayor of Delphi.

Municipal ownership of public utilities will be the subject of an address at the closing session Thursday morning by Mayor John W. McCarty of Washington. Officers will be elected at the closing session and next year's meeting place selected.

way of the old Cincinnati & Westwood steam railway, known as the Gamble line, had been acquired by Indianapolis interurban interests there were numerous denials.

"The Commercial Tribune also stated that the line to run along the Ohio river to Madison, Ind., would use the Cincinnati & Westwood line to get into the city.

"All this was confirmed when at a special meeting of the city council an ordinance was submitted to grant the Cincinnati, Harrison & Indianapolis Electric Railway Company the right to extend its line from the terminus of the Cincinnati & Westwood line to the canal.

"It is recited in the proposed ordinance that the right of way of the Cincinnati & Westwood has been acquired by the C. H. & I. E. railway. It is also recited that an extension will be made to Harrison and thus connect up with the Rushville branch of the Cincinnati & Indianapolis Traction Company, and also that it is desired to have an entrance into the heart of the city."

SAYS TROOPS MAY ATTACK U. S. MEN

General Maas, Mexican Federal Leader, Sends Word to General Funston of Mutiny in Ranks

REPORT MADE TO WASHINGTON

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—Confirmation of United Press dispatches that Mexican troops at Vera Cruz had revolted was contained today in an official dispatch to the war department from General Funston.

General Maas, commanding the Mexican Federals, notified General Funston of the revolt. Maas reported that the mutinous soldiers may attack the American troops at any time but informed him that such an attack must not be understood as under the orders of the Huerta government.

way, generally, while those who were induced to become candidates for state office, in several cases at least, are said to have been assured the campaign would not cost them a penny. This brings up the interesting question of who is furnishing the Moose money, and the Republican leaders frankly admit that they would like to know the answer. The Republican party had no such fund to draw upon. The candidates for state office are paying their way in the primary campaign and expect to continue paying it in the fight following the primary.

Measure Before Cincinnati to Grant I & C. Right to Extend C. & W. Line to Canal.

Proposed Ordinance Recites That Old C. & W. Will be Extended to Harrison and Thence Here.

One of the first steps towards an extension of the I. & C. traction line to Cincinnati is being taken in the acquiring by Indianapolis interurban interests of a right of way into Cincinnati and terminal facilities there.

An ordinance which will give the company the right of way it desires is now under consideration by the Cincinnati council. The proposed extension would be from Rushville to Harrison, O., and thence into Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune contained the following article regarding the proceedings to obtain the right of way:

DELIVERS PARTY REAL BODY BLOW

William Allen White, Who Was Chief Among Those Standing at Armageddon, Sees Obliterate.

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Declares Bull Moosers Will Not Poll More Than 5,000 Votes in Kansas Primary in August.

Topeka, Kas., July 7.—Just before he left for his summer home in Colorado, where he will remain until fall, William Allen White gave out a statement for publication which is regarded the most important of the campaign thus far made.

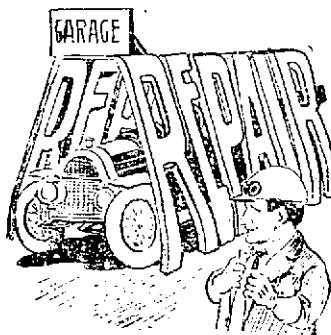

As an admission of weakness on the part of the Bull Moose party in Kansas it was greeted with joy by the Republicans, Democrats, hoping the Moosers will pull enough votes from the Republicans to insure another Democratic victory, were less pleased.

White's announcement was that the Moosers would probably not poll more than five thousand votes at the primary to nominate candidates for all parties in August. White is chief among those who stood at Armageddon in the Kansas campaign two years ago. He is the chief scribe and oracle of them unto this day.

The statement is significant, Republican leaders say, in view of the fact that the Armageddonites polled 124,000 votes in Kansas two years ago. The Socialists drew 36,000 votes, or seven times the vote that Mr. White expects the Progressives to cast in the primary next month for candidates carefully selected for their peculiar fitness to make the campaign by the dozen leaders of the party who assigned themselves to this task. There are no contests among the Progressives for the nominations, there being only one man in the field for each office.

The Moose candidates for county office are expected to pay their own
